CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 300 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Soon we entered D Block Again, the stench here seemed overpowering. But this time, the sound of loud cries and moans caused me to turn to my hosts in alarm. Yes, said Mr. Youssef shaking his head sadly, this is too bad, but we dont have enough caregivers to look after them. Its a good thing they are handicapped, because they dont feel anything anyway. I entered a room filled with children lying in and bound to metal cribs, their hands tied so tightly with cotton tights or rags that their appendages ballooned out into purplish-gray masses. Many of the children had also been tied around their middles. I could see their little stomachs bloated above these rag belts. Wearing thin grayish pajamas, they looked like inmates from a medieval torture house and the cries and moans only made it worse. Oh God! How dare You show me this What do You expect of me That place is hell. Oh God, oh God, oh God! But God had a plan. I would give everything I had to help these children experience Gods love and mercy, to cry out for justice on their behalf, and give them hope. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
