V4 2009r OCLC Number: (OCoLC)730502111 Excerpt: . . . 11 By participating in the Department of Veterans Affairs Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Program, I was able to receive the support and financial assistance needed to achieve a dream - earning an MBA and an MPA ( Master in Public Administration ) from Harvard University. I can personally attest to the success that is possible when Veterans and transitioning servicemembers have the benefit of a committed Federal agency and its staff to assist them. I continued a career of public service as a White House Fellow, serving as a Special Assistant to the U. S. Secretary of Commerce, and then as a Fulbright Fellow in Singapore. Afterwards, I had the privilege of serving as the Deputy Director for Hawaii's Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism, a position equivalent to Deputy Secretary of Commerce. Most recently, I was a Leadership Consultant with McKinsey and Company in Asia and helped organizations develop their human talent and performance potential. Since my accident, I've also had the opportunity to work with and learn from many nonprofits that help underserved populations. Transitioning from military to civilian life as a Veteran-amputee taught me first-hand the challenges that Veterans and transitioning servicemembers can face upon entering the civilian workforce. I understand and have been a part of the communities we serve and those we partner with, and appreciate the importance of transitions and assistance to help create, or recreate, a life and career. I am inspired and committed to help Veterans and transitioning servicemembers create meaningful lives, develop rewarding careers and become productive citizens and leaders in their...
